ACT Prep Course

for college admissions

The ACT is a 3 hour (3.5 hours with the Writing section added) exam that high school students take for college admissions. There are four sections: English, Mathematics, Reading, and Science. The ACT Plus Writing exam includes an additional Writing section, which some colleges require. A 36 is a perfect ACT score.

An Excel Test Prep course is the best way to prepare for the ACT.

We offer a variety of formats, so there is a course to suit the needs and schedule of every student.

ACT test facts

About: The ACT Test is used for college admissions. It is among the most important test students take in high school.

Governing Body: The ACT is created by the ACT, Inc. (Originally known as the American College Testing Program)

Official Website: www.actstudent.org

Test Length: 3 hours (3.5 hours with the Writing section added)

Test Subjects & Format: The exam covers four subject areas: English, Mathematics, Reading, and Science. The ACT Plus Writing exam includes an additional Writing section, which some colleges require for admission.

Subject	Format	What It Includes
English	45 Multiple Choice Questions	Identifying errors in passages and improving grammar, usage and syntax
Math	60 Multiple Choice Questions	Questions on arithmetic operations, algebra, geometry, statistics and probability
Reading	40 Multiple Choice Questions	Reading passages evaluating comprehension skills
Science	49 Multiple Choice Questions	Questions testing interpretation, analysis, evaluation, reasoning, and problem-solving skills required in the natural sciences
Writing (Optional)	1 Essay	An essay (based on a logical argument) measuring writing and composition skills

Grading: Each section is graded on a scale of 1-36. The scores from each section are averaged to create a combined Composite Score with 36 being the highest score possible. If you take both the English Test and the optional Writing Test, your score report will show two additional scores: a Combined English/Writing score on a scale of 1-36 and a Writing subscore on a scale of 3-36.

Test Dates: The ACT is offered nationally on five dates: in October, December, February, April and June. In selected states, the ACT is also administered in late September. The specific test dates vary by year.

Registration: Register for the official ACT at www.actstudent.org. It is wise to sign up 6-8 weeks ahead of time to get your preferred test center and avoid late fees.

Test Locations: Students select a test center (usually a local high school) during registration.

Test Fees: The exam fees are $58.50 (ACT with Writing) or $42.50 (ACT without Writing). There is an additional $27.50 fee for late registration. (Pricing may vary from year to year. Check with the ACT website for the most up-to-date test fee.)

FAQs

Should I take the ACT with or without writing? We recommend students take the ACT Plus Writing exam; however, to see if your college requires the Writing Test, visit <https://actapps.act.org/writPrefRM/>.

How much high school math do I need before I start preparing for the ACT? The ACT Math section contains 60 questions covering six content areas: pre-algebra, elementary algebra, intermediate algebra, coordinate geometry, plane geometry and trigonometry.

What is a good score? A good score on the ACT is one that will get you into the college of your choice, so score goals should be based on which college you want to attend. The average score on the ACT is a 21. Below are the average scores of incoming freshman for various schools:

School	ACT
Harvard	35
Princeton	35
MIT	35
Stanford	35
Carnegie Mellon	34
Duke University	34
Univ. of Southern Cal.	33
UC Berkeley	33
UCLA	33
Univ. of Virginia	33
UC San Diego	32
NYU	32
Santa Clara University	32
UNC - Chapel Hill	32
Univ. of Texas - Austin	31
Cal Poly San Luis Obispo	31
UC Davis	30
UC Santa Barbara	29
San Jose State	26

"Excel Test helped me with the science section of the ACT! I felt more confident and comfortable on the section."

FAQs CONTINUED

Does it matter if I take the ACT or the SAT? Both the ACT and the SAT are nationally administered standardized tests that help colleges evaluate candidates. Most colleges and universities accept both. We recommend that students take both exams and use the higher score. Some students do better on one than the other; however, one is not necessarily easier than the other.

When should I start preparing for the ACT? It's always best to start preparing as early as possible so that you have more preparation time to reach your goals. We recommend starting the summer before 11th grade, but students should start preparing no later than the summer before 12th grade.

How many times can I take the ACT? You may take the ACT as often as you like. A separate score record is kept for each administration of the exam. Only the score record from the test date requested will be sent to a college. You can request for more than one test date report to be sent to a college.

What other factors besides ACT scores affect college admissions? Entrance exams are a large part of admissions decisions, but other factors contribute to your appeal. Class rank, extracurricular activities, major, recommendations, essays, and the interview can influence admissions departments.

ACT vs. SAT

Understanding the difference between the 2 main college admissions tests (the ACT and the SAT) is important. Students must decide whether they want to take the ACT, SAT, or both.
